

THE FENIAN.

Unabated Excitement Along the Border.

Troops Marching and Counter-marching.

Colonel Owen Starr Goes to the Front.

Five Thousand Men at Malone.

Demolition After the Franklin Fight.

Bitter Complaints of the Rank and File.

Cincinnati Gives the Mover a Cold Shoulder.

George Francis Train Contributors to His Misery.

The Kansans Regard it a Magnificent Failure.

United States Troops in Motion.

Huntington the New Base of Operations.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

United States Troops in Motion.

Excitement in New York.

New York, May 26.—The excitement about the Fenians has been unabated to the day, despite the news of General O'Neill's imprisonment. This piece of intelligence was generally disregarded among the Fenians, who were awaiting news of the purpose of disbanding the men at home and putting a stop to enlistment.

of the Fenians a large number of recruits were received, and transportation for over thousand men was prepared; General O'Neill's release from prison, all of them full of assurance that the entire division of aliens on the border was full of promise, and that the cause had fair to succeed. One of the first dispatches was from General Gage, announcing the capture of the Savage branch of the Brotherhood.

ALONE THE BORDER.

Information has been received that at least 20,000 Fenians are distributed along the border, and 5,000 are at Malone ready to march to the frontier operations.

THE MARTINS AT MALONE.

is considered of no importance, and believed to have been a effort to draw the attention of the Canadians from the point where the division had been sent.

ALONE THE BORDER.

New York, May 26.—There was a crowded meeting of the Fenians at Malone, and the tributes sufficient to send 200 men to the front. The party is expected to leave to-day.

"NEW YORK, May 26.—Owing to the spur of the Fenian party, nearly all the men who had been recruited have been sent to the front, and only 5,000 are at Malone ready to march to the frontier operations.

THE IRISH AT MALONE.

is considered of no importance, and believed to have been a effort to draw the attention of the Canadians from the point where the division had been sent.

ALONE THE BORDER.

Information has been received that at least 20,000 Fenians are distributed along the border, and 5,000 are at Malone ready to march to the frontier operations.

MASSACHUSETTS RECRUITS.

BOSTON, May 26.—News from the Canadian frontier has been received, and the men, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

A MOVE FORWARD.

The afternoon news from New York on the Hudson River railroad train is to be expected from the front day by day. The news, but recruits continue to depart. One hundred and fifty, principally from Lynn and Lowell, have been enlisted.

THE PROSPECT HOPEFUL.

New York, May 26.—Great excitement has prevailed among the Fenians of this city all day, and the news that General O'Neill had reported safe to New York was received with a shout of joy.

Two detachments of United States troops left for the frontier to-day.

ALL RIGHT.

Gen. O'Neill telegraphed from Waterbury, Conn., that he was going forward. We expect to have a fight.

</div

Courier-Journal.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1876.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Judge of the Court, JUDGE W. C. HORN.
For Clerk of the Court, CHARLES M. THURSTON.
For County Attorney, ALBERT S. WILLIS.
For Sheriff of Jefferson County, CAPT. JOHN M. MARTIN.
For County Assessor, JOHN HARRISON.
For Coroner of Jefferson County, CONRAD J. WEBER.
For County Surveyor, JOHN ROSE.
For Jailer of Jefferson County, ANTHONY E. CAMP.
For Judge of the City Court, J. HOP. PRICE.
For Clerk of the City Court, JOHN C. LORAN.
For Marshal of the City Court, PAT. DILLON.
For Preserving Attorney of the City Court, FRANK HAGAN.

TELEGRAMS.

Gold closed yesterday at $145.

Customs receipts for the week, $20,000,744.

Judge Richard Stockton died in Trenton yesterday.

E. B. Baker received the Democratic nomination on Wednesday for Mayor of Covington.

Rev. Isaac Collins, the venerable Methodist clergyman, died in Baltimore on Wednesday.

Various Commanders of Knights Templar of Missouri have gone into campment at Columbia, Mo.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Moore, of the First Congregational Church, Hartford, Conn., has been elected Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of New Haven.

The books of John Macbeth, late editor of the Standard, are now in the hands of his wife.

Franklin, Mo., has a new name, Franklin.

Franklin, Mo., has a new name, Franklin.